DIGITAL ACCESS TO MAGNIFICAT

Good news: The Magnificat can be accessed online! Bad news: Bulk subscriptions, which is what Holy Family Parish does, can't use this digital access as part of the bulk price. However, a trial subscription to digital access is $5 for 6 months. This subscription has to be purchased online at Magnificat.com/trial. Also, to use it, one has to download the app, since it doesn't work well in a browser. After the 6 month trial, the digital subscription can be continued for $20/year. Digital access can also be purchased month by month within the app as needed for $1.99/month. For instance, if you're on vacation and don't want to bring your book, or if you lost your book for the month, digital access can help out..

PRECIOUS BLOOD TO BE AVAILABLE AT WEEKEND MASSES

Beginning with Holy Thursday Mass, Fr. Isaac is returning to the distribution of the Precious Blood at weekend Masses. Below is some information about receiving Holy Communion, from The Roman Missal.

The Church also teaches and believes that "immediately after the consecration the true body of our Lord and his true blood exist along with his soul and divinity under the form of bread and wine. The body is present under the form of bread and the blood under the form of wine, by virtue of the words [of Christ]. The same body, however, is under the form of wine and the blood under the form of bread, and the soul under either form, by virtue of the natural link and concomitance by which the parts of Christ the Lord, who has now risen from the dead and will die no more, are mutually united."

Christ's presence in the Eucharist challenges human understanding, logic, and ultimately reason. His presence cannot be known by the senses, but only through faith—a faith that is continually deepened through that communion which takes place between the Lord and his faithful in the very act of the celebration of the Eucharist. Thus the Fathers frequently warned the faithful that by relying solely on their senses they would see only bread and wine. Rather, they exhorted the members of the Church to recall the word of Christ by whose power the bread and wine have been transformed into his own Body and Blood.

It should never be construed, therefore, that Communion under the form of bread alone or Communion under the form of wine alone is somehow an incomplete act or that Christ is not fully present to the communicant. ... Thus, the Church has always taught the doctrine of concomitance, by which we know that under each species alone, the whole Christ is sacramentally present and we "receive all the fruit of Eucharistic grace."

At the same time an appreciation for reception of "the whole Christ" through one species should not diminish in any way the fuller sign value of reception of Holy Communion under both kinds. For just as Christ offered his whole self, body and blood, as a sacrifice for our sins, so too is our reception of his Body and Blood under both kinds an especially fitting participation in his memorial of eternal life.
