FROM THE Pastor's Desk

GOD NEEDS US

How often have we heard it said that we need God, that we cannot do without Him? But let us never forget the other part of this beautiful truth — that God needs us; that God needs you and He needs me. True, He could have done without us; there was no need to create the likes of you and me, but having done so, having made us the sort of beings that we are and placed us in the kind of world in which we live, God needs every one of us.

God needs the teenager, singing and laughing and perhaps enjoying life as he or she may be doing. God needs the young couple deeply in love with each other. God needs the valiant and heroic mother who writes a wondrous odyssey of love each day of her waking life. God needs the brave father who keeps the home fires burning. God needs the poor, broken patient on a seemingly useless and endless bed of pain. God needs, yes let me say it, even the man or woman who curses and rebels against Him because of failure, dashed hope, shattered dreams, life wasted, home in ruins.

God needs each and every one of us, wherever we may be, whatever we may do, in order to continue His redeeming work. He needs us because He has no other hands but yours to stretch forth and do good, no other feet to wander forth and take His message everywhere, no other voice that could speak the words of faith and love, no other heart with which to love those who starve for the love which this world cannot give.

God needs you, dear friend.... You become His hands, His feet, His voice, His heart, to the world around you, to the home in which you live, to the place in which you work, to the social life in which you enjoy yourself — wherever we go, whatever we do, may we have ringing in our ears and hearts those wonderful words — GOD NEEDS ME.

~M. M.
